

International agencies for conservation

The Ramsar Convention on Wetlands

- International treaty.
- Held on 2nd Feb.1971,in Iran, Ramsar.
- First of the modern intergovernmental environmental agreements
- 163 Contracting Parties.
- Pakistan joined in 1976.

The logo for the Ramsar Convention, featuring the word "Ramsar" in a white, serif font on a teal background. The text is enclosed in a black rectangular border.

Ramsar

The 3 implementation “pillars” of the Convention

1. “Wise use” of wetland
2. Designation of Wetlands of international Importance
Designation of priority wetlands as Wetlands of International Importance (Ramsar Sites), and to ensure their conservation and wise use.
3. International cooperation

Ramsar Sites in Pakistan

1. Tanda Da
2. Thanedar Wala
3. Chashma Barrage
4. Uchhali Complex
5. Taunsa Barrage
6. Indus Dolphin Reserve
7. Dright Lake
8. Deh Akro-II Desert Wetland Complex
9. Runn of Kutch
10. Nurri Lagoon
11. Jubho Lagoon
12. Indus Delta
13. Kinjhar Lake
14. Haleji Lake
15. Hub Dam
16. Miani Hor
17. Ormara Turtle Beaches
18. Astola Island
19. Jiwani Loastal Wetland

